the extent the indemnifying party has been materially prejudiced. The indemnifying party will have full control and authority over the defense, including appeals, negotiations, and any settlement, except that: (a) it may not make an admission of fault on behalf of the other party without written consent; (b) any settlement requiring the party seeking indemnification to admit liability requires prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and (c) the other party may join in the defense with its own counsel at its own expense. Both parties acknowledge that the limitations on liabilities set forth in this Section 12 and the disclaimer of warranties set forth in Section 9 (Warranty) represent a mutually agreed upon allocation of risk, and the consideration provided under this Agreement has been calculated to reflect that allocation of risk.

16.2. Assignment. Distributor must not, by operation of law or otherwise, assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement, including but not limited to assignment or transfer to an Affiliate, parent, subsidiary, or any successor in interest, without the prior express written consent of the Company. In no event will Distributor's rights or obligations under this Agreement be assigned or assignable by operation of law or by bankruptcy proceedings; and in no event will this Agreement or any rights or privileges under this Agreement be an asset of Distributor under bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization proceedings. The Company may, without Distributor's consent: (a) assign this Agreement; and (b) assign a purchase order submitted by Distributor under this Agreement to a Company Affiliate.

16.3. Waiver, Amendment and Modification. No waiver, amendment or modification, including by custom, usage of trade, or course of dealing, of any provision of this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the party against whom the waiver, amendment or modification is sought to be enforced (except that Company's standard End User Agreement may be amended from time to time by the Company in its sole discretion). No waiver by any party of any default in performance on the part of the other party under this Agreement or of any breach or series of breaches by the other party of any of the terms or conditions of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any subsequent default in performance under this Agreement or any subsequent breach of any terms or conditions within the Agreement. Performance of any obligation required of a party under this Agreement may be waived only by a written waiver signed by a duly authorized officer of the other party; a waiver will be effective only with respect to the specific obligation described in the waiver.

16.4. Force Majeure. Neither party will be deemed in default of this Agreement to the extent that performance of its obligations, or attempts to cure any breach, are delayed or prevented by reason of circumstance beyond its reasonable control, including without limitation acts of government, riot, war, fire, natural disaster, earthquake, pandemics, endemics, accidents or other acts of God and which renders the party's performance impossible (Force Majeure Event). A party seeking to delay its performance because of a Force Majeure Event must give the other party written notice of the Force Majeure Event within fifteen (15) days after the discovery and use good faith efforts to cure the non-performance or breach caused by the Force Majeure Event. The parties agree that the Force Majeure provisions of this paragraph are not applicable to the payment of any amounts owed when due.

16.6. Cumulative Rights. Any specific right or remedy provided in this Agreement will not be exclusive but will be cumulative upon all other rights and remedies set forth in this Agreement and allowed under applicable law.

16.7. Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, U.S.A., without regard to its conflicts of law principles. Both parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts for the State of Delaware, U.S.A., and expressly waive any objections or defense based upon lack of personal jurisdiction or venue. Each party waives the right to jury trial for any legal action, in law or equity. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and Uniform Computer Information Transaction Act, as adopted by any state or governing body, does not apply.

16.8. Severability and Survival. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement will otherwise remain in full force and effect and enforceable. Sections 3.2 (Relationship of the Parties), 7.2 (Payment Terms), 9 (Warranty), 10 (Indemnification), 11 (Limitation of Liability), 12 (Confidentiality), 13.3 (Intellectual Property), 14.3 (Effects of Termination), 15 (Audit) and 16 (General Provisions) will continue in force and effect after termination of this Agreement. It is expressly understood and agreed that in the event any remedy in this Agreement is determined to have failed of its essential purpose, all other limitations of liability and exclusion of damages set forth in the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

16.9. Non-Solicitation. The parties agree that, during the Term of this Agreement and for twelve (12) months thereafter, neither party will directly solicit for employment any employee of the other party if that employee has been directly involved in performance of obligations under this Agreement. The foregoing prohibition will not be deemed to restrict general advertisements of employment or the rights of any employee of one party, on that employee's own initiative or in response to any general advertisement(s), to seek employment from the other party nor, under those circumstances, for the advertising party to hire that employee.

16.10. Notices. Any notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder or required by law will be in writing and will be sent by email to Company at legal@cloudbolt.io and for Distributor, to the email indicated in the Order Form, as may be updated from time to time upon notification by one party to the other party in accordance with this Section. Any such notice will be considered to have been given at the time stamped by recipient's email application (or, if not available, the time stamp of transmission by the sender's email application).

16.11. Language and Headings. This Agreement is executed in the English language and interpretation or construction of this Agreement must be based solely on the English language. All headings are for reference purposes only and must not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

16.12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, any of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.
